STATEMENT/GOAL

My heart's desire is to provide the state of Maine with the Godly love, support, wisdom and care that you can only find in a Bible-believing church, and to not only see them saved, but to grow in Christ, and disciple others.

To begin, I want to thank all of you for your prayers and remembrance for my ministry. Deputation is going well thus far. Recently, I have been invited to speak at several mission's conferences in my hometown, and my pastor and I, along with others from my church, attended the mission's conference held at Heartland Baptist Bible College, in Oklahoma. We had a great time in the Lord, and it was a much-needed encouragement to meet the many missionaries with a heart to win America at that conference. I've also been welcomed by many churches in the immediate area, and I've seen great responses from those Christians regarding my burden. Pray that those that I've visited so far will share my burden.

With Covid hopefully coming to an end in the near future, many churches are beginning to open their sanctuaries again for services. Many pastors I have called since beginning deputation were not allowing missionaries to present at that time, due to Covid. With these churches now returning to normal, please pray that I will be able to visit these churches, and that God would fill their hearts, to see the mission ahead, and continue the fight.

The Lord has blessed me with support; support is rising slowly but surely. The New England region can be an expensive place to live, due to Maine being one of the highest-taxed states in the U.S, and also due to the utility bills in the winter season. The Lord is continuing to provide, and as the date draws nearer, it looks better each day.

Finally, I need your prayers for my personal life. Without being grim, and too detailed, the Lord has been putting me in situations that I've never had to encounter before. These things are for the glory of God, and to help me so that I may help others (Romans 5:3-4), but they've been seriously affecting me, mentally. Pray that the Lord deals with each member of my family, that they will turn to Him and seek His will.

I look forward to my next letter, and I expect it to be filled with great news of my ministry.

Your Brother in Christ
