Missionaries in Togo, West Africa

December 2023

Dear Friends,

It's been a long time since our last meeting, and I thought I would write you this letter to see how everything is. I'd also like to take this opportunity to wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

I'd like to thank you and express my gratitude for the financial help and moral support you gave us during the difficult period when I lost my beloved husband, which has fortunately passed. Your intervention was a great help in helping me get back on my feet and regain a taste for life. The delicate situation in which I found myself is now a thing of the past. I'm sincerely grateful. I'm writing these few words to express my gratitude to all of you, and especially to Mr. Bryan and his wife Charlotte. It's during these moments of distress that true friends recognize themselves among others.

A new year of hard work lies ahead, and I know that the magnitude of the task awaiting you does not frighten you.

I therefore wish you and your loved ones a happy and fruitful New Year. I hope it will also be a successful one for our church and the whole community, and that we will continue to work in a spirit of mutual cooperation and respect.

I leave you with my very best wishes for the New Year.

With all my gratitude and sincere friendship,
Sister Kedji
