

SUPER MOMS

Are you one of the many women today who feel forced to be a "Super Mom?"

Your outer appearance shows you can handle all things, but what about your inner thoughts?

How long can you go on before you fall under the load?

What about the children? I want to be a good mother. I want to be there when they need me. I want to provide for their property. I don't want them to raise themselves. I want them to have a good education so they can achieve their goals in life.

What about the bills? I'm very thrifty, but not enough to make it until the end of the month. What about unexpected expenses? What bill should I not pay to meet this unexpected expense? The landlord is another thing. At 8:00 in the morning every first of the month he's on the doorstep. Every time, I'm told how he profits nothing from renting to me. It never crosses his mind how hard it is to scrape up the rent every month.

What more? How can I do it all? How long can I hold up under this kind of pressure? I believe what I want is right, but how will I? How? How? How? Does some, or all of this sound familiar to you?

I've found the answer!

I found it in the Bible! Yes, the Bible. You can too. It's so wonderful!

Divine help is the answer.

1. I need salvation

Romans 3:10 says:

There is none righteous, no, not one:

Romans 3:23 says:

For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.

Romans 5:8 says:

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 10:13 says:

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

2. I need wisdom

Proverbs 9:10 says:

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all they that do his commandments; his praise endureth forever.

James 1:5 says:

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

3. I need encouragement

Jeremiah 33:3 says:

Call unto me and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

I Peter 3:12 says:

For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers.

Psalm 9:18 says:

For the needy shall not always be forgotten; the expectation of the poor shall not perish forever.

4. I need strength

Psalm 138:3 says:

In the day when I cried thou answerest me, and strengthenest me with strength in my soul.

Isaiah 40:29-31 says:

He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall; But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

5. It must all be by faith

Romans 10:17 says:

So then faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God.

Matthew 17:20 (b) says:

If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

Find a good Bible believing church and attend faithfully. Read your Bible and pray every day and the Lord will help you every day, one day at a time, and soon you will be able to look back and see, how through obeying God's word, He has helped you and how happy you have become.
