Please Pray for the Commodore Family Missionaries in St. Thomas, USVI

January 26, 2012

Hi Everyone,

Happy New Year! May the Lord guide your moments as you go through 2012. Challenges won't stop; trials will come too but let's rest in the promises of God. He remains faithful always.

My family is currently keeping well. Please accept my apologies; our last letter didn't seem to reach you. My family and I moved to St. Thomas December 31st 2011. The Lord continues to show Himself faithful here, in so many ways He has come through for us. The past few weeks were quite busy for us as we tried to get the girls into school. Thank God they are all settling well as they learn to adjust to a new culture. Niri is in the 10th Grade, Nikki in 4th and Nillia at preschool. You can well imagine the numerous stories we have to listen to as they come home daily.

I continue to seek the Lord for direction as it relates to the ministry. We now fellowship with Community Baptist Church based in Smith Bay. I have availed myself for Gods service and I've been privileged to preach and teach. I covet your prayers as this move has been the most difficult for me. It was hard saying goodbye to Portsmouth Gospel Mission Assembly after thirteen and a half years. God gave the grace and I know God is with us in this because we are at peace.

The Portsmouth church family is faced with some challenges as we prayerfully trust God for a pastor. A committee of four men have been charged with the responsibility to keep the work going. The feeding, hospital, outreach, missions' ministries are ongoing. They are all challenged by a lack of commitment by some and finance. Please cover us with your prayers that God will allow for a smooth transition.

Your faithful financial and prayer support over the years are deeply appreciated. May God bless you richly for partnering with us on Dominica. I trust that my move to St. Thomas does not end our connection with you. I would appreciate continued contact via email: elgin98@hotmail.com and mail. In this regard, please forward all correspondence to the following address: P. O. Box 401, St. Thomas USVI, 00804. You may also call me at 340 771 6724.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Nigel Commodore
