Dear Pastors and Members,

As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. II Cor. 6:10. This is the Christianity that the Apostle Paul wants us to live.

We are forever grateful for the sacrifice that you make to keep us in the ministry in Trinidad and Tobago. My wife and I continue to preach and teach in the public schools the Word of God.

Last week, three Hindu students publicly accepted Jesus as their Lord and Saviour. We are grateful that we still have the opportunity to do so.

Please help me to pray for my son Stephen who has a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing and cannot find a job for almost two years. He is married and his wife is also unemployed.

Thank you for your usual goodness.

Yours Faithfully,

*Yours faithfully,
Pram and Sita*
