Acts 13:23

What a privilege the Lord has given to each one of us to proclaim the Gospel. Each day is a new opportunity to proclaim the Gospel. Some days ago, a lady came to me and ask me, "Are you a Christian?" I asked her, "Why?" "It is because you are always happy. It shows in your face the positivity." The most important thing is that conversation helped me guide her to Christ. She left very grateful and happy and I meditated on this. If we could be the Christians that we should be, live more according to what God commands, less prideful, more humble, less arrogant, more merciful, less selfish, more giving, less interested in ourselves, more sharing . . . a series of thoughts came to me. If we could be more and more like Christ, what would the people see in us. But I recognize something, we need to keep proclaiming the Gospel and let God keep working in our lives because sometimes we don't do and we don't let others do. May God have mercy upon us. Our duty is to preach the Gospel, proclaiming Christ. Amen.

Everywhere I go, some pastors ask me, Nieto, "what is your plan? what is your program?" My plan and my program is to announce the Gospel. There is nothing new under the sun. We complicate our life and our ministries trying to impress others, looking for our own interests and trying to grow our own kingdom, when in reality we should increase the kingdom of our beloved Lord and Saviour Christ Jesus.

Thanks to God for His eternal love with Whom He loved us and has made us to serve Him. So we keep announcing the Gospel. At the end of September, I was in the Iglesia Bautista Hispana del Norte in Kelleen, Texas with Pastor Angel Ortiz, celebrated their eighth anniversary. Then in the Iglesia Bautista El Arca del Pacto, Liberty Baptist Church, Segunda Iglesia Bautista Liberated with Pastor Santiago Medran, supporting twice in the missions of our church with Pastor Benito Estada and Pastor Jefri Maradiga in Cleveland and Houston, Texas. In the month of November, I participated in the mission conference in Corpus Christi in the Iglesia Bautista El Cordero de Dios. Also I had the opportunity to preach in Austin Texas in the Iglesia Bautista de Cristo with Pastor Angel Farias. Another blessing in November, I shared the Word of God in the Iglesia Bautista el Faro with Pastor Isac Rodriguez in Pasadena, Texas. I ask your prayers because in the month of December is a month of much activity. I would be in South Carolina in a mission conference. Also in Chicago, Rockford, Illinois and I will finish preaching in the city of New York.

I will be much grateful if you can pray for a project of collaboration with other missionaries in Europe and South America. I am planning to be in 2018 and 2019 in Europe, South America and Mexico where I will be proclaiming the Gospel through my ministry and in conjunction with some programs of these missionaries. I will give you more details in the following months. Luke 1:37.

To God be the glory,
