

Please Pray for the
Scott Family
Missionaries in Grenada

November 15, 2011

Dear Supporting Friends,

Greetings to you in the name of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Best wishes for the Christmas season and a happy and prosperous New Year 2012. Hope all is well with you.

The Church is going well. Saints are being grounded more in the faith. We have four in baptism class. Anesta's Sunday school class is growing every day with the young teens and kids. Music class for the young ones is going great; by year end they should be playing in the main service.

Please pray for us, Anesta in particular, as she carries our baby. We are looking forward to that. For me it's a great feeling becoming a father and I am seeking God's wisdom in this new venture. I can hardly wait and am already out of patience.

Please help us pray for these: Support level, my wife, the baby, converts, souls (4 young men before the year closes), music class, and our missionaries that we support and Kelvin, a man at church, who is sick and is hospitalized in Trinidad.

We expressed our thanks and appreciation for your continual support financially and otherwise.

May the Good Lord continue to guide and bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Jeremy and Anesta Scott
